

Paul Masson Project Profile

Design, fabrication and implementation of what was at the time believed to be the first computer controlled variable speed glass filling line in North America (Saratoga plant). This system ultimately became the foundation for numerous other high speed glass filling lines for The Seagram Company.

Consulting to assist in the successful retrofit of a keg filling line (Central CA).

poinfo@performanceoperations.com

(949) 472-9524